SCHIFF CHANGES ZIONIST VIEW

$470 Revolution in Russia Shows Need of Solidarity.

Jacob H. Schiff, who has been one of the most influential opponents of the Elemist movement in America, has changed his attitude and is now opposed to any activities on the part of his co-missionists that will interfere with the establishment of a national Jewish home in Palestine.

In a letter written at his summer home at Bar Harbor, Me. to Rabbi bavid Philipson of Cincinnati, made pub-lic yesterday with Mr. Schiff's approval by the Zionist organization of America. he yesterday with Mr. Schill's approva-by the Zionist organization of America, the philanthropist declined to permit the use of his name in connection with a conference to be held in opposition to the Zionist movement. After explaining that soon after the outbreak of the Rus-sian revolution he had been compelled to change his views, Mr. Schiff said. "Your proposition in the nature of Chings as they have developed cannot be successful and will only bring forth bit-terness, recrimination and marked di-vision among the Jewish people of this country, which, I am sure, is greatly to be deprecated."

HEARST PAPERS WIN AGAIN.

City Officials of Mount Vernon Enjoined by Justice Donnelly.

Justice Donnelly, granted yesterday an hignetion in favor of the Star Company, publisher of the New York Evening Journal and the New York American, and sgainst the civic officials of Mount Version, who, through an ardinance adopted recently, closed the doors of the city on the Journal and the American.

Justice Donnelly said it was clear from the papers that Justice Glegerich had decided that a prior ordinance prohibiting dealers in Mount Vernon from wiling the Journal and the American has unconstitutional.

K. of C. Building at Camp Mills.

The new Knights of Columbus building was opened at Camp Mills yesterday. Col. R. R. Pickering accepted the building on behalf of the Government, the presentation being made by Joseph Quinn of the Long Island chapter. The building contains all the conveniences of a modern club. Many of the furnishings were donated by Mrs. W. K. Vanderbitt, Jr.

New Service Club Opened.

PROMOTION FOR 200 CARRANZA SEEKS TO REORGANIZE ARMY

store Old Leaders.

Special Despatch to THE SUN. SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Sept. 11 .- The Mexican daily paper La Pressa published to-day an interview with a prominent Mexican recently arrived from Mexico city, who stated that President aexico city, who stated that President Carransa has decided to reorganize his army by discharging the former bandit revolutionists who infest the country and calling back the best among the officers of the old Federal army. He intends to have a disciplined army of 100,000 men, instead of the present unmanagable hordes, which are a menace rather than a protection to the civilian population.

was adopted at a meeting Carranza had with his most prominent Generals. He told them frankly that unless the army was reorganized and anarchy prevailting all over the country stopped, it would be impossible to restore order and to make any real and steady progress.

"What we need," Carranza is quoted as having told his Generals, "is a cleaning up in the army, to eliminate every undesirable man, and still more, to bring back all former Federal officers with a clean record, who are ready to help us, in the task of reorganization. We must also resuscitate the old Military Academy, in order to obtain able officers as required for a respectable and strong army."
